

Info-day on EU programs. Bilat-Rus-Advanced project

Training workshop on the international programs for research and technology cooperation between Russia and the EU

September 19, 2014, St. Petersburg

Venue: Saint Petersburg, Sokos Hotel Olympia Garden, Bataiskii Pereulok, 3A

Preliminary program

Hours	Presentations	Speaker
10:00	Welcoming speech	Representative of the Committee for Industrial Policy and Innovation of St. Petersburg The representative of the St. Petersburg Foundation for SME
10:20	Review of programs of scientific and technical cooperation between Russia and the EU, supporting international cooperation (FTP TS, Horizon 2020, Eureka, ERA-NET)	Anton Yanovsky - Project Director - Russian Technology Transfer Network
10:40	Horizon 2020: the general conditions and the participation model. Finding partners for consortia	Eva Fadil, project manager, inno TSD, Sophia Antipolis, France
12:00 - 12:30	Coffee break
12:30	Support international scientific and technical cooperation in the framework of the Federal Target Program "Research and development on priority Areas of Science and Technology complex of Russia for 2014-2020 ". Multilateral cooperation programs «ERA-NET»	Irina Sharova, deputy head of the NCP "Biotechnology", Institute of Biochemistry RAS.
13:00	Russia's participation in the European program "Eureka"
13:30	Examples of projects of international scientific and technical cooperation. Success Factors	Gennady Pilnov, executive director of the Russian Technology Transfer Network

14:00	Examples of initiation and preparation of applications for tenders ERA-NET. Using the tools of the project Gate2RuBIN EEN and to find partners "	Vera Popova, Elena Guchkova TVN Foundation
14:30	Preparation of project proposal and the formation of the consortium. Search Tools partners. Practical Training	Gennady Pilnov, executive director of the Russian Technology Transfer Network Anton Yanovsky, Project Director of the Russian Technology Transfer Network